Former senator and his assistant detained. Corruption

The CBA officers from Wrocław have detained 11 persons, including former 8th term senator of the Republic of Poland Józef P. and Jarosław W., his assistant. The case is related to corruption.

The CBA officers from Wrocław detained 11 persons, including former 8th term senator of the Republic of Poland Józef P. and Jarosław W., his assistant, claiming to be the director of the senator's office.

Today's detentions have resulted from the proceedings carried out since 2015 by the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau by order of the then Appellate Prosecutor's Office in Poznań.

Afterwards, by order of the Field Division of the Organised Crime and Corruption Department of the National Public Prosecutor's Office in Poznań, the investigation in its entirety was vested in the CBA.

The case is related to corruption. The detainees will be transported to the Prosecutor's Office where they will face allegations of having perpetrated corruption criminal offences involving giving or accepting of financial advantages.
