Study visit of the Lithuanian delegation

A delegation from Lithuania participated in a study visit to the headquarters of the CBA.

National Police Headquarters, represented by officers of the Department of Asset Recovery of the Criminal Service Bureau, is the organizer of a study visit for 21 people from a Lithuanian delegation in the frameworks of international training project titled "Enhancing the capacity to conduct financial investigations to prevent and combat organized crime". The delegation includes representatives of, among others, financial intelligence units, of the Lithuanian Financial Intelligence Police, Customs Service, Lithuanian Prosecutor General's Office and the Border Guard.

The aim of the visit is to get acquainted with the practices applied by Polish law enforcement agencies in combating economic crime, especially of organized nature as well as corruption prevention.
