CBA meeting with Ukrainian journalists

Journalists from Ukraine met today with representatives of the CBA.

10 journalists from the southern and eastern Ukraine met today with representatives of the Central Anticorruption Bureau (CBA).

The journalists are staying in Poland as part of a study visit co-financed from the funds of Polish development cooperation of the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the US Agency for International Development (USAID). The meeting was also attended by representatives of the International Solidarity Foundation, which helped to organize the visit.

Guests were introduced to the CBA's statutory tasks, its functioning and areas of activity, including corruption prevention.

Jacek Dobrzynski, Press Officer for the CBA
