Meeting between the CBA and Balkan & Turkish journalists

Journalists from the Balkans and Turkey, met today with the representatives of the CBA.

18 journalists from Turkey, Kosovo, Montenegro, Serbia, Macedonia, Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, met today with representatives of the Central Anticorruption Bureau (CBA).

The journalists are staying in Poland as part of a study visit organized by the European Journalism Centre at the invitation of the European Commission. The aim of the visit is to, among others, acquaint visitors with the Polish experience in the fight against corruption.

During the meeting, journalists were presented to the CBA's statutory tasks, its functioning and areas of activity, including corruption prevention.

Jacek Dobrzynski, Press Officer for the CBA
