President Andrzej Duda at the Training & Conference Center of the CBA in Lucień

Memorial plaque dedicated to President Lech Kaczyński and organized by him "Lucień seminars" was unveiled by the President Andrzej Duda. The guest was officially welcomed by the Head of the CBA Ernest Bejda.

Last week our Center hosted a group of excellent professors, who earlier met several times in Lucień with President Lech Kaczyński. The Head of the CBA Ernest Bejda officially welcomed the President of the Republic of Poland Andrzej Duda.

The first seminar in Lucień (then presidential center) under the auspices of prof. Lech Kaczyński was held in March 2006 . In lucień debates participated historians, journalists, lawyers, philosophers, sociologists.

The 10th anniversary was an occasion to recall those events and the unveiling on the main building of the training and conference center of the CBA, a memorial plaque dedicated to the originator of the meetings - Lech Kaczyński. In the unveiling of the plaque participated his daughter Marta Kaczyńska.

- What is very significant, and what I would like to emphasize, the president (Lech Kaczyński) pursued here the idea of a real debate, because here met people with very different views - President Duda stressed in his speech.
