On 12 October 2026, officers of the CBA Regional Office in Rzeszów detained the Mayor of Sanok on the instructions of a prosecutor from the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Rzeszów. During the investigation, documents and data storage devices that may constitute evidence in the case were secured.

Promise of a Financial or Personal Benefit

In April 2026, the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Rzeszów and the CBA Regional Office in Rzeszów received a report concerning a reasonable suspicion that a representative of the Sanok municipal authorities had committed a criminal offence. The detainee was brought before the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Rzeszów, where the prosecutor charged him with an offence under Article 231 § 1 in conjunction with Article 229 § 1 and Article 11 § 2 of the Polish Penal Criminal Code (abuse of power and promising a financial or personal benefit to a person performing a public function). The alleged offence is punishable by imprisonment for a term ranging from six months to eight years.

The prosecutor imposed non-custodial preventive measures on the suspect, including police supervision combined with a prohibition on contacting a designated witness, bail in the amount of PLN 30,000, a ban on leaving the country, and suspension from official duties as Mayor of Sanok for the duration of the proceedings.
