Detention of former members of the management board of Węglokoks. A loan for an insolvent sports club from Chorzów. Property damage of large sizes

The CBA agents from the Regional Office in Katowice detained eight persons: former members of the management board of Węglokoks S.A., including its former president and former members of the supervisory board of the Czech company Polské Uhli a.s.

The detentions took place in Katowice, Piekary Śląskie, Gliwice and Warsaw.

The Regional Office of the CBA in Katowice together with the District Prosecutor's Office in Katowice investigates the damage caused to property of large size on the property of Polské Uhli a.s., whose sole shareholder is Węglokoks S.A. The Czech company, part of the Węglokoks S.A. Capital Group, sells coal on the Czech and Slovakian markets.

The evidence collected in the course of the proceeding indicates that the suspects in years 2014 and 2015 took actions that led, inter alia, to causing material damage of large sizes in the assets of Polské Uhli a.s. The crime was committed in connection with loans granted to the insolvent sports club Ruch Chorzów S.A.

Detainees will be brought to the District Prosecutor's Office in Katowice, where they will be charged.
