CBA representatives with a visit in Lithuania

On 18-19 September 2014 a bilateral meeting was held between the representatives of the Central Anticorruption Bureau and the Lithuanian Special Investigation Service.

The two-day meeting took place in Vilnius. Its purpose was to exchange experience in combating corruption between the two services, including analytical and preventive activities. Issues related to anti-corruption strategy as well as the possible development potential twinning project were discussed.

CBA delegation was chaired by Head of the Bureau Paweł Wojtunik.
