Multilateral meeting of the management of the CBA, the Estonian Police (KTT) and KAPO, the Lithuanian STT and the Latvian KNAB

The Head of the CBA Ernest Bejda and Deputy Head of the CBA Grzegorz Ociecek on 25-26 March 2019 took part in a multilateral meeting of heads of key institutions dealing with combating and counteracting corruption. The meeting took place in the capital of Estonia and the organizers were the Central Criminal Police and the Internal Security Service (KAPO).

During the meetings, the heads of the institutions discussed, i.a., current issues, challenges and problems in combating and counteracting corruption. Legal and technical problems that occur in specific cases were presented. The participants shared their experiences, pointed out new solutions and innovations related to anti-corruption. The previous cooperation and its further directions were discussed. Reference was also made to the best practices used by partners from the region.

This is the first such meeting of the heads of services, which will be continued in the future.
