European Police Chiefs Convention 2019 (EPCC 2019)

Deputy Head of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau Ph.D. Grzegorz Ociecek, assistant professor at Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, took part in the annual European Police Chiefs Convention.

The event was organised by the Europol and the Finnish Presidency of the Council of the European Union on 2-3 October in The Hague.

This year's convention raises topics related to European police cooperation regarding the development of crime and ways how to combat it, especially in the context of serious organized crime.

As every year, the organizers are planning joint meetings of high-level management representatives of all law enforcement services and bodies cooperating within Europol, joint discussions and exchange of experience.
