Searches in 10 places

Today the officers of the Regional Office of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau in Szczecin are carrying out a number of searches.

The activities are being performed in 10 locations, including the Municipal Office in Choszczno, the Municipal Utility Company in Choszczno, headquarters of business entities and places of residence of private persons.

The searches are being carried out based on the decision issued by the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Szczecin. The officers are securing, among others, documentation and electronic equipment in connection with the preparatory proceedings regarding the misuse of authority by public officials.
