Head of the CBA Paweł Wojtunik in Ukraine

On a personal invitation of Prime Minister of Ukraine Arseniy Yatsenyuk, the Head of the CBA Paweł Wojtunik participated in talks today in Kiev.

The Head of the CBA has already met with the Prime Minister of Ukraine Arseniy Yatsenyuk. Later he is going to meet with the Chairman of the Verkhovna Rada (Ukrainian Parliament), Ministers of Justice, Interior and the Director of the National Anti-Corruption Bureau. The aim of the visit is to exchange views and ideas on fighting corruption in Ukraine based on the Polish experience and best practices.

In the invitation sent to the Head of the CBA, the Prime Minister of Ukraine stressed that the "experience of Polish CBA is very important for Ukraine by choosing the best anti-corruption measures for our country".

Jacek Dobrzynski, Press Officer for the CBA
