Offenders caught "red-handed"

Three persons detained by officers of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau just after handing over 25,000 PLN bribe. The money was a gratification in exchange for withdrawing from the tender organized by the AMW (Military Property Agency) in Bydgoszcz.

The officers of the Łódź Regional Office of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau disclosed obstruction in the tender proceedings conducted by the Military Property Agency.

Based on the collected evidence, the Bureau's agents have detained three persons in the act of handing over PLN 25,000 bribe. The detainees are two realtors and a person participating in a tender organized by the Bydgoszcz Military Property Agency.

Everything indicates that the detained realtors, in order to achieve financial benefit, took part in the tenders announced by the Military Property Agency - the Regional Department in Bydgoszcz - for the purchase of premises constituting military property. Then, just before the start of the tender, they had entered into an agreement with one of its participants, proposing that in exchange for financial gratification they would withdraw from participation in it, enabling the purchase of flats for that participant at a starting price. The detainees were charged with obstruction of public tender in order to gain financial benefits.

The materials collected by the CBA were sent to the District Prosecutor's Office in Bydgoszcz.
