Inspection at Wołów Town Hall

On 20 December 2019, the officers of the Regional Office of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau in Wrocław instigated control proceedings at the Wołów Town Hall. The detailed scope of the proceedings covers the control of the Municipality's compliance with the procedures, laid down by the law, on taking and implementation of decisions concerning the preparation, awarding, and execution of selected public procurement contracts for construction works in the field of construction, reconstruction, and renovation of road structures and other facilities functionally related to such procurements in the years 2014 - 2019.

The envisaged date of the inspection completion is 20 March 2020.
