Detention in the investigation into supervision over SKOK Wołomin

The officers of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau from Szczecin have detained a well-known Warsaw businessman. This is another person detained in connection with the investigation regarding supervision over SKOK Wołomin, including influence peddling in a state institution. The proceedings cover the years 2012-2014. After the completion the procedural activities, the man will be taken to the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Szczecin, where he will hear allegations.

So far, 10 people have been detained in the investigation, including former high-rank officials of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority and a well-known lawyer from Trójmiasto.
