The Head of the CBA at the European Police Chiefs Convention

On 24th September 2015 the Head of the Central Anticorruption Bureau participated in the European Police Chiefs Convention (EPCC) organized by the EUROPOL.

The meeting took place in the headquarters of the EUROPOL in the Hague.
The aim of the convention is exchange of experiences and dialog between the representatives of menagerial level of all of the services and law enforcement agencies cooperating within EUROPOL. The agenda of the event focuses on subjects connected with the scope of activity of EUROPOL. Taking into consideration tragic events which took place in Belgium and France, this year the discussions will concern the issue of terrorism.

Jacek Dobrzynski, Press Officer for the CBA

Europol-logo