A car bribe for the former mayor of the Włochy District of Warsaw

The CBA continues its investigation into the former mayor of the Włochy District of Warsaw. There are further detentions and charges.

The officers of the CBA Regional Office in Warsaw have detained the main shareholder and the president of a company in Warsaw, and conducted searches in their apartments. These are two further individuals detained in connection with the investigation into the former mayor of the Włochy District of Warsaw.

In the District Prosecutor's Office in Warsaw, both detainees heard allegations related to giving a financial advantage to the former mayor. The bribe involved the transfer of a luxury brand Class C car for free use, the attestation of an untruth in the car rental documentation, and making false statements.

This investigation thread led to presenting charges to the former mayor, who has been remanded in custody since 28 October 2019, when he was detained red-handed while accepting a financial advantage in the amount of PLN 200,000.
