A former civil servant suspected of submitting false asset declarations detained by the CBA

The officers of the Warsaw Regional Office of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau, together with the District Prosecutor's Office in Ostrołęka, have been carrying out an investigation into the submission of false asset declarations by a former treasurer of a municipality in the Maków Powiat.

In connection with this case, the CBA officers have detained the suspect and carried out other procedural activities in his place of residence. In the District Prosecutor's Office in Ostrołęka, the former civil servant has been charged with submitting false asset declarations in the years 2014-2018. In particular, it was pointed out that in the asset declarations, the suspect did not reveal a number of properties, financial liabilities, and other assets. The prosecutor has used non-custodial measures against the detainee.

Further steps are underway. An act under Article 233 § 1 and § 6 of the Penal Code is punishable by imprisonment from 6 months to 8 years.
