Romanian delegation at the CBA head office. Protocol on cooperation

A delegation from Romania visited the main office of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau. The visitors were: Liviu Vasilescu - Director General of the Anti-Corruption General Directorate within the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Traian Mihaiața Barlici - Director of the Prevention Department.

During the visit, the Head of the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau Andrzej Stróžny and the Director General of the Anti-Corruption General Directorate within the Ministry of Interior of Romania Liviu Vasilescu signed a protocol on cooperation.

The agreement highlights the need to strengthen international cooperation as an important element of corruption prevention. It also aims, among other things, to exchange experiences and best practices in corruption prevention and to develop appropriate professional standards, including expert meetings, seminars and training courses.
