Detentions and charges in connection with vocational activation projects

Training projects with a value exceeding PLN 46 million examined by investigators from the Central Anti-Corruption Bureau and the Prosecutor's Office. Two more persons detained. In total, the charges have been brought against 43 people.

The CBA Regional Office in Katowice has been investigating, under the supervision of the Regional Prosecutor's Office in Katowice, frauds and extortions from the European Union funds, intended for the implementation of vocational activation projects for the unemployed and professionally inactive.

The Public Prosecutor's Office is interested in 26 such training projects, implemented by 18 entities, with a value exceeding PLN 46 million.

Officers of the CBA Regional Office in Katowice have detained two residents of Bielsko-Biała who took part in this practice. Non-custodial preventive measures have been applied against the detainees.

To date, a total of 43 persons have been charged. The detentions are the next step in the multi-threaded and complex preparatory proceedings. The case is ongoing and further detentions are being planned.
