Intelligence Led Policing - training in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation

CBA officers took part in Intelligence Led Policing training, conducted for them by FBI officers.

The training was also dedicated to methods of combating corruption in public life and economic crime.

Both law enforcement agencies, despite different geographical locations, encounter the same challenges in the field of the effective fight against criminals hiding their assets using cryptoassets or in the development of big data and intelligence analysis.

The training was financed by the Norwegian Financial Mechanism 2014-2021.
